NOSE NOTE :

Very complex, opulent, with lightly stewed pear that opens to cinnamon, a touch of cardamom and just a turn of the pepper mill.

This is followed by prunes, a hint of ground coffee and some bitter cocoa.

There are also notes of vanilla and sandalwood at the end.

PALATE NOTE :

Pear returns immediately, accompanied by prunes and spices.

Coffee is also present, with a slight bitterness that gives the whisky power and length.

Notes of cinnamon are also consistent, while cherry and a hint of chocolate appear subtly.

FINISH NOTE :

Long, with notes of fresh fruit, prunes, coffee and pepper.
