

PRODUCT INFORMATION :

This peated single malt is blended from casks previously used for Pineau des Charentes.

Maturation in the distillery's dry cellar gave this whisky great character.

After blending, it was refined in one of our wet cellars to reveal a relatively discrete but very elegant peatiness.

It was bottled by gravity at 48 %, unfiltered and uncolored, after several months of slow reduction.

AZURITE

TWELVE

DISTILLERIE
DE LAGUIOLE

NOSE NOTE :

In two stages, first notes of rancio, marzipan and dried fruit, reminiscent of childhood.

Then leather and smoke mingle with peaty fragrances, reminiscent of the finest autumn evenings.

PALATE NOTE :

The attack is frank, AZURITE is round and fat, with a velvety texture that envelops the palate.

Dried fruit flavors mingle with elegant peat.

Ashy notes recalling a beautiful winter's fire come at the finale.

FINISH NOTE :

Sur la longueur, une forme de fraîcheur presque mentholée vient faire durer cette dégustation et prolonger ce moment unique.
