NOSE NOTE :

A very complex nose, with elegant notes of tobacco box, beeswax, and fresh bread, all enveloped in an oaky setting.

The nose opens with hints of vanilla, candied fruit, and buttery brioche.

A few notes of dry biscuit and cooked sugar emerge with aeration.

PALATE NOTE :

Opulent, smooth, and indulgent, this is the texture we love to find in a magnificent spirit, almost oily.

Fir honey and woody notes are prominent. Cedar and cinnamon make their appearance... An invitation to travel.

A few roasted notes, mingled with fine wood, add considerable depth to this whisky.

FINISH NOTE :

Long, very long, and spicy.

A lovely but intense woodiness finishes the tasting and begs for a cigar.
